

THE FOURTEENTH

mbrain Conference

INFORMED LEADERSHIP – PREPARE FOR 2020

OCTOBER 17TH – 19TH 2017

Hard Rock Hotel Chicago, USA

World-class knowledge-exchange, skill transfer and conducive networking for professionals and teams.

The road to 2020 intelligence acuity begins here

As the world continues to thrust into the future with exciting market trends, competitive evolution and increasing customer expectations, maintaining and developing an industry dominance requires sharper thinking and clearer execution.

No longer is it enough to turn up and expect to win. This modern marketplace requires you to prepare and plan for victory.

The new learnings and intelligence concepts you take on today will pave the way to the decisions you execute and results you achieve tomorrow.

The M-Brain Conference is designed to support the World Class Thinkers of 2020 and their journey towards Intelligence Excellence

- Expand your consciousness with compelling presentations from world-class minds
- Learn hands on in conducive workshops and roundtables
- Network with fellow intelligence professionals and strategic business leaders of tomorrow

The world's leading intelligence conference is vendor-free and the entire focus is on developing our attendees and delivering the true value they desire.

Fresh insights from within the global intelligence community

Our team is delighted to be announcing the powerful industry insights and findings from the 2017 Global Intelligence Survey live on the opening day of the conference. So this event is absolutely set to be the world's leading intelligence conference with unique insights unavailable anywhere else.

We hope you'll find everything you need and look forward to welcoming you in Chicago.

Thomas Rideg

2017 GLOBAL INTELLIGENCE SURVEY

The 2017 Global Intelligence Survey results will be launched at M-Brain's 14th Intelligence Conference in Chicago!

The industry's largest and most reputable survey in Market Intelligence will bring to you pressing information that intelligence practitioners want and need to know in order to benchmark and grow their functions and professional career.

Be ready to find out:

- What are the intelligence budgets across different tier companies? How are they growing (or not)?
- How are intelligence functions structured across organizations?
- How are companies distributing their intelligence investments?
- What are the key success factors to yield ROI?
- Which business functions do intelligence functions serve?
- How do companies measure against each of M-Brain's 9 key success factors for intelligence? New!
- What are the hottest themes/topics to cover?
- What types of intelligence activities are mostly utilized? What activities are emerging?
- What are the emerging tools and frameworks?

- How much is executive decision making supported by intelligence?
- What is expected from intelligence from the point of view of the end-user? New!
- What should be the role of intelligence in the future? New!
- What are the career paths for intelligence professionals? New!

And more...

The results of this ground breaking study form the foundation to M-Brain's renowned 'Intelligence Framework', utilized by thousands of practitioners around the planet, helping companies benchmark against their peers, evaluate their performance and most importantly, create roadmaps for development and improvement.

The 2017 study will help you understand what intelligence will look like in 2020 and what you need to do to succeed.

Help us make this survey an even bigger success by completing it. Upon completion, you will be awarded a $100 discount when registering to the 2017 M-Brain Conference in Chicago!

Workshops | Tuesday October 17th

Please select two half-day workshops

Please note, workshops are ONLY for attendees purchasing a 3 Day Package

BUILDING A WORLD CLASS INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM

Half Day Workshop

You have been tasked with setting up an intelligence program or revamping an existing one and you are wondering where to start and what steps to follow. Benchmark your progress against case examples and best practices. Learn to use frameworks and templates. Develop an action oriented set-up plan. Design your own individual MI Development Road Map with concrete action points. Walk away with practical next steps to build your intelligence program into World Class!

COMPETITOR SIMULATION (WAR-GAMES)

Half Day Workshop

Would you like to understand what a war-game is, what it can do for your company and how to do it? This workshop will zoom in on the different levels of competition, explain the theory of war-gaming and all the different formats of running a war-game. Workshop participants play a simulated, yet very realistic competitive war-game. This workshop is designed to fully arm the participants with the analytical ammunition they will need to run their own war-games.

Workshops | Tuesday October 17th

Please select two half-day workshops

Please note, workshops are ONLY for attendees purchasing a 3 Day Package

MARKET SIZING AND FORECASTING

Half Day Workshop

Do you need to estimate the market size and growth but you are lacking the methods and practical examples of segmentation and forecasting? This workshop focuses on understanding market sizing, whether you are looking at a particular geography, segment, product area or channel. Participants will get a clear overview on the methodologies, models and frameworks that help in estimating the size and growth of markets, including best practices, interpretation and explanation

STAKEHOLDER MANAGEMENT

Half Day Workshop

Your internal customers are not the easiest to deal with? This workshop is all about starting, developing and maintaining excellent relationships with key stakeholders. It will be a bit of theory complemented with real life examples and best practices. The focus will be on which stakeholders to develop a relationship with, how to approach top executives, social style in relationship management, building trust, needs analysis, question techniques and coping with resistance.

MI MIND MELD 2020: USING PSYCHOLOGY TO DESIGN WINNING TEAMS

Half Day Workshop

In this workshop we will explore how to identify and create powerful networks that will contribute to the MI function through psychology. This fun session will begin by leveraging on successes of famous sitcoms, where we will analyze how different profiles can naturally fit to create synergy, energy and impact; or not! Psychological profile matching has been applied to sports and to businesses with a great degree of success. We will now apply this to the creation of winning MI teams. All participants in this half-day workshop will take a 10 minute survey during the workshop.

- Pair different psychological characteristics to perform well together
- Create future and solution oriented teams
- Become a trusted advisor to decision makers

Roundtables | Thursday October 19th

Included in both 2 Day and 3 Day Package

Day 3 Round-Table Sessions. Please select two roundtable sessions – one before the break and one after and actively participate in the discussion.

ROUND TABLE 1: THE IMPACT OF INTERNET OF THINGS AND M2M ON INTELLIGENCE.

In 2020 data from the Internet of Things and Machine-to-Machine communication will generate the vast majority of Big Data. This will have a major impact on market and competitive Intelligence. Data collection will be 100% automated and sophisticated software with complex algorithms will do all the predictive analysis and modelling. On top of that, platforms and dashboard will do the dissemination. What does that mean for us, the intelligence professionals?

In this Round table session we will try to find answers on the following questions:

- How will we maintain our relevance? Will our role change, and if so how?
- What are the opportunities?
- What are the risks?
- Where will we see the impact? (which aspects of the intelligence)
- Will IoT and M2M lead to new intelligence services?

ROUND TABLE 2: WHAT WILL BE THE NEW INTELLIGENCE SERVICES IN 2020?

By 2020 the world will face different market dynamics due to geopolitical changes and influences, economic trends, sociodemographic shifts, sustainability issues and technological disruptions. Will these new market dynamics have an impact on the competitive landscape, the position of customers and consumers, on the way we go-to-market, etc. If so, how will the current, classic market and competitive intelligence services be sustainable? Might we instead need to develop completely new intelligence services to cope the world in 2020 and support decision making in a valuable way?

In this session will discuss:

- What market dynamics will impact the way we need to do intelligence?
- What kind of intelligence services should we develop?
- What is needed to successfully implement these new intelligence services?
- Which skills and competencies are needed?
- How will these changes impact the current processes and stakeholders?

Roundtables | Thursday October 19th

Included in both 2 Day and 3 Day Package

Day 3 Round-Table Sessions. Please select two roundtable sessions – one before the break and one after and actively participate in the discussion.

ROUND TABLE 3: COLLECTING DATA?

Data is growing faster than ever before and by the year 2020, about 1.7 megabytes of new information will be created every second for every human being on the planet. The prediction is that by 2020 our accumulated digital universe of data will be around 50 zettabytes (or 50 trillion gigabytes). In this round table we will discuss the statement: "Stop collecting data. It is useless, because it only creates more of the same".

- Do we need to collect data? Why?
- What are the alternatives to collection? How do these work?
- What are the advantages or disadvantages, the opportunities or challenges?
- What should change in the intelligence process to work with data differently?
- Or... the statement is not relevant and I will tell you why

ROUND TABLE 4: THE NEXT-GEN INTELLIGENCE PROFESSIONAL

By 2020 Millennials will make up over a third of the global workforce, and you can expect many of them finding a job in intelligence. However, this generation has a different view on work ethics, behavior and attitude; they deal differently with privacy and loyalty; they bring their own devices and applications; and they expect a different style of relationship with their managers. On the other hand, they are very smart, technology savvy, exceptionally well connected (always on) and infamous for multitasking.

In this session we will discuss the professional relationship with the Millennials.

- How do we manage Millennials?
- What can we learn from them?
- What motivates them?
- When to tell, when to listen and how to agree?
- What are the challenges and how can we overcome them to succeed?

Roundtables | Thursday October 19th

Included in both 2 Day and 3 Day Package

Day 3 Round-Table Sessions. Please select two roundtable sessions – one before the break and one after and actively participate in the discussion.

ROUND TABLE 5: THE ROI OF INTELLIGENCE

The pressure on topline and bottom line results is more intense than ever. In the coming years we will see that divisions that are seen as cost centers, need to prove their positive contribution to the results and success of a company. By 2020, it will be standard protocol to measure added value across the board, and it is unlikely that intelligence departments will be an exception to the rule. However, given the nature of intelligence, calculating the ROI is not easy to do. In this Round Table session we will answer the following questions:

- Should the ROI of Intelligence be measured, or can we claim to be an exception to the rule? Why?
- Is ROI only the monetary figure or could it include other parameters? if so, what else?
- Can we measure the ROI of Intelligence? If so, how?
- What are good examples, methodologies or best practices?

The Intelligence Show

INTELLIGENCE IN 2020

Our show master will welcome 4 experienced professionals with different backgrounds and view on intelligence to have an animated discussion on how intelligence will shape in 2020.

Be prepared for a vibrant and thought provoking debate on questions such as:

- How will the market be shaped?
- How important will humans be vs. technology?
- What will be the impact for intelligence scope?
- Will the intelligence processes change?
- How will we cope with IoT data, predictive modelling and analysis?
- What kind of tools and models will we use?
- What will be the key competences for an intelligence professional in 2020?
- Will that be different for different industries or markets?
- What do we need to do now to make sure intelligence will be relevant in 2020?
- What will be the challenges?
- Will Intelligence be the most important function for the success of a company in 2020?

and many, many more!

The intelligence show is a perfect combination of knowledge sharing, provocative opinions and entertainment, including interaction with the audience.

Pre-conference and post conference consultancy

To maximize your value of the conference, we offer to assess, prior to the conference, your current MI/CI/SM status, recommend tracks and sessions at the conference, and propose networking with the right speakers and other peers at the event. You will also get quick tips that will enable you to take your intelligence program to the next level. Take the opportunity and be well prepared to learn and network!

After the Conference, we will help you digest the key learning items from the conference, discuss how to apply them in your company's context, and we will provide objective advice and best practices for the next steps. This includes proposing networking with the right speakers and other peers from the event. Subject to speaker and peer's availability.

Please note that the schedule for a diagnostics session will need to be agreed upon with your assigned expert and is subject to expert availability.

Are you struggling with intelligence issues such as:

- Which method should I use to set the right priorities for my organization?
- How do I gather better feedback on my deliverables?
- Which MI tools should I use?
- Is co-creation the right path for me? What other choices do I have?
- How do I cope with stakeholder resistance?
- How do I define KPI's intelligence and can I measure ROI for intelligence?
- How do I engage with my audience in social media?
- How do I develop an intelligence culture?

Book a consultancy session with one of our senior consultants to discuss one pressing intelligence issue. Sessions will be held after the presentations on October 19, 2017 between 1:30 and 2:30pm

Welcome to Chicago! the third largest city in the United States, with a population of nearly three million people. Chicago is one of the nation's most vibrant and accommodating cities.

As a multicultural city that thrives on the harmony and diversity of its neighborhoods, Chicago today embodies the values of America's heartland-integrity, hard work and community and reflects the ideals in the social fabric of its 77 distinct neighborhoods.

The city is traversed by the Chicago and Calumet rivers. Chicago's extensive parklands, including 3,000 hectares of city parks attract an estimated 86 million visitors annually. Whether you are planning a travel itinerary for a half day, weekend or multi-day stay, these are so many must-sees while in the Windy City.
